

Sales Vacancy

Premier Connections Travel Ltd based just off Luton Airport began in 2002 and has now developed into a £2M turnover business with a passionate, loyal and reliable core team of individuals, who work hard to deliver the highest levels of service to our customers. Premier delivers services in the local area and throughout the UK and Europe focusing on passenger transport.

An opportunity now exists to join our growing team in a new role in our busy sales department. If you are self motivated with the right core qualities, we will invest in you to give you the training, skills and qualifications required for the role.

Core skills required:

- Computer literate with the ability to learn new systems
- Excellent interpersonal skills
- Ability to effectively communicate internally and externally
- Ability to absorb industry regulations and assist in application of regulations
- Ability to understand the demands of the Travel & Tourism sector
- Excellence in record keeping
- Ability to problem solve under pressure in the most cost effective way
- Flexible approach to time in pursuit of fulfilling task
- Ability to prioritise tasks but still ensure all completed to deadlines set
- Industry knowledge and qualifications useful but not essential.
- Positive, light hearted approach, sense of humour essential.
- Ability to be creative and use your own initiative in the pursuit of new business
- Most importantly the competitive desire to win business!

Office hours are 9am to 6pm Monday to Friday, the role would be a mixture of office and customer facing as required by the opportunity. Remuneration dependant on age and experience.

If you are looking for a new challenge and believe you have the qualities above, please forward a full CV and a brief summary of why you are the right candidate for the position to rose@premier.gb.com
